REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance are glad to report that the cause, as we believe, is still growing and advancing. We are glad to report that the saloons have been removed from Shelby, and out of the entire county. We recommend that every christian stand firm for the cause of Temperance and see that the law is executed. Brethren, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your works and glorify your Father which is in heaven." "Let us deny ourselves of all ungodliness and worldly lusts and live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world."

We are glad that our people are being aroused on this great question. We hope the day is not far distant when our people will all come together against intemperance and remove this demon from our land. "Look not upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an Adder." Prov. 23-31, 32.

Temperance was discussed by Revs. A. C. Irvin, Jno. E. White, A. P. Hollifield, R. L. Limrick, G. M. Webb, D. F. Putnam, R. N. Hawkins, T. Dixon, J. C. Blanton, J. M. Williams and Brethren E. P. Roberts and J. C. Caddell. On motion the Temperance report was adopted.

Bro. J. C. Caddell read the following

REPORT ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

There has never been a time in our history when it was so necessary that the members of our churches should be informed in reference to the objects of our denomination. Each year we are attempting to enlarge our contributions, and we shall be enabled to do this just in proportion as our people shall be posted on the needs and progress of our work.

We are glad to recommend the Biblical Recorder which for Sixty-five years has been the organ of the Baptist State Convention. It was never so efficient in all its history as at present. We would urge that all our people, who can, shall take the Recorder and learn of the progress and prosperity of our people.

We are glad to note the great increase in the circulation of "Charity and Children." It is a faithful and efficient exponent of our Orphanage work. It ought to go to the home of every Baptist in this Association.

We also recommend the "North Carolina Baptist" as worthy of the support of our people.

The "Home Field" and "Foreign Mission Journal" are excellent periodicals and give us the necessary information concerning Home and Foreign Missions.

L. S. HAMRICK, }

Remarks by Revs. J. W. Cobb, and R. F. Tredway, Brethren J. C. Caddell, Archibald Johnson.

Pending the motion to adopt the above report, the body took a recess of one hour for dinner. Prayer by Bro. Johnson.

FRIDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Met at 1.30 p. m. Prayer by Bro. W. P. Wilson. Prof. H. A. Wolfsohn of Atlanta, Georgia, was received as a visitor from the Stone Mt. Association.

The Report on Religious Literature was taken up and the discussion continued by Bro. A. Johnson.

On motion the report on Religious Literature was adopted.

H. F. Schenck read the following

REPORT ON STATE MISSIONS.

Within a year important progress has been made in State Missions. Enlargement and increase in the Providence of God have been forced upon us, and we have not been unmindful of the Heavenly call. In three directions enlargement of the work is reported.

(a) IN TERRITORY: The Western N. C. Convention occupying ten of our best western counties, dissolved and this territory has been added to our field to be cared for by our Board of missions.

(b) IN FACTORY MISSIONS: The Board has increased the number of its missionaries working among our factory people to eighteen. The remarkable multiplication of factories in our State and the rapid movement of our country population to the factory towns and cities has made this demand upon our resources and continues to demand more than we can supply.

(c) ENLARGEMENT IN APPROPRIATIONS: Answering to the Providence of God the Baptist State Convention instructed the Board to increase its appropriation this year to $20,000. This increase has been made and we are this year doing five thousand dollars more work in State Missions than ever before in our history.

Now in view of this enlargement of the work, your committee submits to the association, the proposition that each of our churches, in order that we share our proportion of responsibility for this enlarged undertaking, should increase its pledges 33-3 per cent. for next year.

We have practically no destitution in our own bounds. There is on spot in our county on which one can stand without being in four miles of a Baptist Church.

God has blessed us. Are we doing our duty in the work of helping the destitute sections in other parts of our State? In one association—the Atlantic—there are ten counties, each nearly as large as Cleveland county. In these ten counties there are only forty-four churches, and only four of these are self-sustaining and only eleven preachers, seven of whom are missionaries of the Board. In many other counties a similar state of affairs can be found. Are we worthy of our cause? Are we at all responsive to God's call to opportunity and duty if we do not increase our contributions?

H. F. SCHENCK, Ch'm'n. } Committee.
L. A. PADGETT, }
J. M. WILSON. }

State Missions were discussed by Bro. H. F. Schenck. Prof. Wolfshon, of Atlanta, Ga., stirred up the missionary spirit by an appropriate song: "I'll go where you want me to go, Dear Lord; I'll be what you want me to be."

Then followed an impressive speech from Rev. Jno. E. White, after which an increased interest was manifested by the delegates in the following

Bro. T. D. Lattimore read the following

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND COLPORTAGE.

The future of the Church in a large measure depends on the Sunday School. We note, with pleasure, the increasing interest of our people in this work, and the encouraging reports from the schools of our association. The Sunday School cause is growing and our people are doing a fine work along this line, but there remains a great deal yet to be accomplished. We would urge our people to give their support to this cause by attending Sunday School, organizing schools in every community, keeping them open all the year, and seeing that they are equipped with good teachers.

The Institutes conducted by Bro. Spilman, and the Chautauquas held throughout the State, are powers for good and deserve the co-operation of the churches. We also urge our people to give their aid to the Baptist Book Store in supplying the destitute with good literature.

W. W. WASHBURN,	} Committee.

T. D. LATTIMORE.

Remarks by T. D. Lattimore and Revs. A. C. Irvin and A. M. Ross.

SATURDAY—MORNING SESSION.

The body met pursuant to adjournment. Music, led by Prof. N. M. Cordell

At 9.45 the Moderator called the body to order and called for the report on Ministerial Relief, which was read by Rev. A. C. Irvin as follows:

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

At last the Baptists of North Carolina have been, at least, partially aroused to a sense of their obligation to the aged and infirm ministers of our denomination in the State. Several years ago, our State Convention appointed a Board for the purpose of raising and disbursing funds for the relief of such ministers as they find, on investigation, to be worthy. It needs no argument to convince a thoughtful pious Baptist of his duty to help support all the preachers who have worn themselves out in the Master's service, and who now in old age have no means of support.

This work has heretofore been neglected, not because we were so ignoble as to disregard its need, but because we have not felt its need. We are now awake to its need, let us supply the funds.

Rev. D. F. Putnam read the following

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

The support of the ministry means much to the world for where the christian ministry has gone, national prosperity, domestic happiness, and the special favors of God have attended. Our churches have not fully awakened to this great truth or surely they would show their faith by their works. Baptist people need to awaken to the great importance of supporting well our pastors and missionaries, for we are behind our pedo-Baptist brethern, especially in supporting our pastors in this association. "God hath ordained that they who preach the gospel should live of the gospel."

God calls men to preach His gospel. He also calls men to support the preacher, for how can he go except he be sent. To support our pastor is to pay a debt we owe him; to support the missionary is to pay a debt we owe to humanity and shows a true spirit of Him who was made a sacrifice for us while in a fallen state.

Your committee recommend that pastors preach on this line of the Lord's work, and that the laity teach it both by precept and example. Brethren it is high time that we awake to our duty toward our poorly paid pastors, so that they may be able to leave off farming, teaching and other vocations, to preach the everlasting gospel of the Son of God.

D. F. PUTNAM,
W. F. GOLD, } Committee.
A. H. CORNWELL,

Remarks by Rev. D. F. Putnam.

The report on Ministerial Support was adopted.

Rev. R. N. Hawkins read the following

REPORT ON BAPTIST ORPHANAGE.

LOCATION—The Orphanage is located on the Southern Railway, one-half mile west from the town of Thomasville. The land property of the Institution comprises 318 acres, on which there is a fairly good four-horse farm of open land. The balance being in wood-land and grounds surrounding the buildings.

GENERAL PLAN—There are five houses or families named as follows: The "Watson" occupied by boys from 12 to 18 years old; the "Durham" from 8 to 12 years of age; the "Biggs" and "Mitchel" for girls of corresponding ages. The nursery is the home of the little ones of both sexes from 5 to 8 years old. The four houses for the large children are built on Wide Avenue, running parallel with each other and having a dining room and kitchen opposite each house.

The nursery is in the rear of the General Manager's home, and near the central school building, in which the school and religious exercises are conducted. All the houses are sufficiently far apart to prevent all danger of fire spreading from one to the other. This avoids the necessity of insuring the buildings which saves a considerable sum to the Institution.

The Infirmary is near the nursery though far enough removed to escape the danger of communicating diseases. The printing office is located near the entrance to the grounds and is occupied exclusively by the editorial and mechanical department of Charity and Children.

RESOURCES—The only source of revenue is the voluntary offerings of the Baptist people of North Carolina. There is no endowment whatever except $2,210.00, which will not produce in interest an amount sufficient to pay the bills for one week. It rests entirely and forever on the hearts of our people, and their sympathy and liberality have been greatly enlarged by reason of this burden which the Lord has thrown upon their shoulders.

The past fourteen years have demonstrated, in a striking way, the tender care of the Lord for His little ones. Not more miraculous was the daily manna that fell from the skies for the children of Israel than has been the constant and steady flow of funds to meet the daily needs of this great work. The money to sustain the Orphanage has come as really from His merciful hand as did the bread for Israel, and both are the result of unwavering faith in the promises of God. Sometimes the streams run low. Sometimes the burden on the hearts of those in charge of the work grows very heavy, but always in His own good time and way, the Lord sends bread through tender hearts to fill the mouths of the dependent wards of heaven. It requires about $200.00 each week to keep the machinery in motion. The giving on the part of our people needs to be more systematic and orderly. If this was the case, the periods of pressure and of deep anxiety would be immensely relieved. The children of our Baptist people are becoming more and more interested in the Orphanage. Nothing appeals so strongly to the sympathies of a child as the story of the aims and objects of the orphanage work.

In the erection of the central building two years ago the children of the State sent over twelve hundred dollars to the treasury. Thus their affection was won to the Orphanage, for children, just like grown people, love that for which they toil and sacrifice.

PRESENT CONDITION—There are now one hundred and seventy-five orphan children at Thomasville. Never, before this year, has so large a number been gathered there. The expenses are of course greater than ever before and the work heavier, however, the increase in the salaries of the employees is only $17.50 per month over what was paid when there were only 125 children there. The current fund to April 1st is considerably below what it was to the same date last year. The work is consequently in sad straits and there is urgent need for prompt and substantial help. Besides there are scores of helpless and dependant orphans knocking at the doors for admission, but they must be turned back into the wide world for lack of means to feed them. The winter has been severe. collections that would have come were never taken on account of snow and ice, and rain, but all time expenses have kept grinding on and the Institution to-day finds itself face to face with a stern condition, which is by no means a theory. Shall the last opportunities of the winter be made good? Brethern, this is for you to say. There are twelve women and seven men employed in the Institution. Their salaries are small and the work they do would bring as much in any market. The average per capita cost of maintaining an orphan per month including the salaries of employees is $4.66. Can any man raise an objection to these figures on the score of extravagance?

FUTURE PROSPECTS—Grand as has been the history of the Orphanage through the past decade, it is just entering the dawn of a glorious day. There will be gathered in this city of refuge five hundred of the children of our dead brethren to have restored to them, as far as possible, what they have lost by death's iron hand—a home and a family. The brethren will awake to their obligation to the helpless.

Sometime; it may not be to-day nor tomorrow, but that time is coming fast. The wider work of the Orphanage has already begun. Plans are now on foot to erect a new nursery, to relieve the tax on the present building which was designed for twenty-five and has exactly fifty. But the important thing is that this wider work begin among our churches. O, that a deeper sense of duty to the poor children should take possession of our souls! There are this day hundreds of these little ones looking up into the sky with no pillow upon which to lay their heads. Shall we heed their cry?

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We Baptists of North Carolina cooperate with our sister states in doing Foreign Mission work. The Foreign Board, located at Richmond, Va., is the servant of the churches composing the Southern Baptist Convention. They organized it. They annually appoint its officers and members. They make rules to govern its proceedings. They furnish the means to carry on its work. They can enlarge or abridge its work at pleasure. When the convention was first organized in Augusta, Ga., in May, 1845, it appointed the Foreign Mission Board (or Committee) and located it in Richmond, Va. Here it has continued ever since. The Board consists of twenty-one members, who live in Richmond, with one vice-President in each of our co-operating states. Of these members only the following receive any salary: the Corresponding Secretary and the Assistant Corresponding Secretary, for all their time, and the Treasurer for a part of his time.

The work attempted by our Foreign Mission Board is a great and important work, which ought to have the hearty support of every Baptist in the South. Christ's great commission, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," is just as binding on every one of us as it was on those who received it from His own lips. Nor can we rid ourselves of the responsibility until the nations of the earth have been won to Christ. Nor need we pray "Thy kingdom come" until we begin to do His will.

We cannot all go as missionaries to heathen lands, but we may all do something to assist the consecrated men and women, who are eminently qualified to do this grand work, by our money, as well as our prayers. Think of it, brethren, over 800,000,000 souls without hope and without God in the world, and only a few missionaries and native assistants now engaged in giving to these Christless millions the glad tidings of salvation. Brethren, let us give as the Lord has prospered us. Let him who hath much, give of his abundance, lest the giver of every good gift should bring him to poverty, and let him that hath but little, give of his little, lest the oil and the meal utterly fail.

We have now 95 missionaries in foreign fields, besides native helpers. The Board will this year add 25 new missionaries which calls for more money and more sacrifice.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

We are thankful for the splendid progress that our denominational schools and colleges have made during the past year. The number of students enrolled at these schools over the State is larger than ever before. There were more students at Wake Forest during last year than that of any previous year, and the college is not only sustaining its past high record, but it is making steady progress. This year's opening was best in the history of the college. The Board of Education is still doing its noble work, but it needs the hearty support of our people.

The Baptist Female University at Raleigh will open its doors the last of this month to the young women of the State. These colleges demand our hearty and constant support in every legitimate way.

We would also mention our Baptist school at Cleveland Mills, taught by Prof. W. D. Burns. Respectfully submitted, Saturday—11, a. m., Rev. J. M. Williams of Polk county.

Saturday—2, p. m., Rev. J. W. Cobb of the "North Carolina Baptist," followed by Rev. A. M. Ross of Kings Mountain.

SUNDAY'S SERVICES.

At 10 o'clock, a. m., Rev. D. F. Putnam was called to preside over a Sunday School Mass meeting, in which Revs. R. N. Hawkins and B. M. Bridges, and Brethren F. P. Gold and J. C. Caddell made some splendid Sunday School talks; then Prof. Cordell led the choir in some fine music: "Send the Light," etc.

At 11 o'clock, a. m. it was thought best to have Rev. Jno. E. White preach to the whole assembly at the stand. After an able, stirring and well timed missionary sermon, a cash collection was taken for State Missions amounting to $45.00.

As the years go by, and as the world advances, it seems that the King's Mountain Association is keeping pace with all this progress. To be present at this session was to enjoy a feast both temperally and spiritually. It looks as if an Allwise Providence had decreed that this should be a most excellent session. In the first place the weather was exceedingly fine. The heavy showers of rain on day previous to meeting, nobly served to keep down the dust during remainder of the week. The fall of mercury in the thermometer at beginning of session was very beneficial to the culinary department in the homes of the good people of New Prospect and vicinity, and also rendered it very pleasant to the members of the body while engaged in business in the house.

The attendance was exceedingly good, the delegates from all the churches, save one, being present on the first day.

The reports read during the session were well gotten up and showed clearly that the committees had been very careful that their respective reports should be instructive by throwing light on the different subjects of which they treat. Notwithstanding the dry season, the pledges for all the different objects ran ahead of last year, and while it was hoped the Sunday's cash collection would reach $25.00, it ran up to $45.00 for State Missions to be added to the more than $300.00 already pledged to that purpose during the session.

The liberality of the two new churches so recently organized, Lawndale and Double Shoals, is indicative of life and growth in those churches.

And then the harmony that existed in the body was enough to make one exclaim, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." In the introductory, and in many of the speeches, unity in the churches was urged. Many striking illustrations on this point were given. Among other lessons on this line we were told how some western horses huddled in the middle of a field with their heels together, heads outward, to fight off a herd of wolves, and how the wolves so easily ran up and cut their throats; then in another case, the horses put their heads together, and with heels outward they easily tumbled every wolf that came within reach; the application being that when church members put their heels together and begin to kick each other, the wolf can the more easily destroy them, but when all the members put their heads and hearts together, there is less danger from the destroyer, the church is much safer, and far more prosperous.

It is believed that many went to their homes on Sunday afternoon, filled with new resolves for the better, and, at the same time, giving a hearty sanction to the statement made by Sunday's speaker, that this had been about the best session he had attended during the season and was among the best sessions the King's Mountain ever held.
